

POLICY STATEMENT

What We Do:

- 1) Provide counseling for children, adolescents, couples, and families
- 2) Suggest books, support groups, classes, and information for parents that may help minimize challenging behaviors or decrease presenting concerns
- 3) For court-ordered clients, we can report the number of sessions attended, session dates, and client's involvement in therapy
- 4) Report suspected child abuse, neglect, harm to self or others, according to Colorado Law

What We Do Not Do:

- 1) Legal Mediation
- 2) Get involved in the legal aspects of court cases or testify in court, unless subpoenaed by a judge
- 3) Make recommendations for parenting time, custody or visitation for children in divorce or separation situations
- 4) Evaluate a child for possible sexual or physical abuse or neglect

I understand that a second mental health therapist or special advocate specifically hired as an evaluator can offer recommendations to an attorney or to the court. I agree not to request Play Therapy i.n.c. or any of its therapists to communicate with an attorney or with any court about what he/she knows about me or my child.

I understand that Play Therapy i.n.c. or any of its therapists will not release any information to any outside party including confirmation of services provided without a written release of information.

I have read and understand these policies.
